office management

Semi-annual Index

January-June, 1958

Association News

AMA conference hears "progress reports" on E.D.P. installations
by Frederick Vogel ..... April, page 25
NOMA announces schedule for Chicago conference and business show ..... April, page 82
Chicago hosts NOMA conference ..... May, page 39

Automation in the Office

How to prepare an office for a computer installation ..... January, page 30
Basic steps in programming a computer for a single operation
by Ben Conway ..... February, page 28
Spread of office automation slowed by cautious business mood in 1957
by Robert M. Smith ..... Yearbook, page 10
Operations research and its role in the office management picture
by David B. Hertz ..... Yearbook, page 14
Why small companies may need automation even more than larger concerns.
by Robert M. Smith ..... June, page 31

Layout and Equipment

1957 "Office of the Year" Awards announced January, page 25
Publishing firm adds a modern touch to its 50-year-old address ..... January, page 48
Don't overlook older office buildings when planning new office space ..... January, page 56
Decor expresses organization personality in savings institution.
by Frederick Vogel ..... February, page 32
American Colortype places emphasis on "big office" advantages
by Frederick Vogel ..... March, page 36
"Office of the Year" awards, 1957
by Frederick Vogel ..... Yearbook, page 35
Advertising agency promotes itself, its clients in bright new offices ..... April, page 36
Pfizer International opens new, modern offices ..... May, page 34
Dramatic C. I. T. building adds impetus to office boom in New York by Frederick Vogel ..... June, page 34

Personnel

How to schedule work loads for a "floating force"
by Ralph Fairbanks and Jerome Hoffman ..... February, page 23
Our employees helped us halve our forms load
by John P. Boxshus ..... February, page 30
What are the new trends in insurance, health protection for office workers?
by Robert M. Smith ..... March, page 25
How to set up effective and equitable promotion policies
by Robley D. Stevens ..... March, page 40
End to personnel shortage sighted even if economy enters another boom
by Edith Conner ..... Yearbook, page 18
Management development: are we stressing programs over people?
by Jack B. Collins ..... Yearbook, page 20
How office managers rate job performance: a measurement guide.
by Robley D. Stevens ..... May, page 40
Clerical personnel pool swelled by June high school graduates ..... June, page 38
Is your indoctrination of new personnel as scientific as their selection?
by Raymond Dreyfack ..... June, page 41

Special Features

What's ahead for the office in 1958–review and forecast.
by Robert M. Smith ..... January, page 19
Suburban bank proves mechanization can pay in small office
by Frederick Vogel ..... January, page 22
Employing the "art of command" in company communications.
by Stanley H. Mansbridge ..... January, page 28
Long range planning is only effective when it, too, is planned
by Ernest W. Fair ..... January, page 43
Does your organization really welcome new ideas?
by G. R. Bell ..... February, page 68
The how, when and where of effective procedure audits
by Thomas G. Horti ..... March, page 31
How one small office made its work measurement program work ..... March, page 60
Let's not overlook the physical aspects of Communications techniques
by H. V. Kellam ..... April, page 28
Why clearly defined authority levels are basic to good organization structure.
by Stanley H. Mansbridge ..... April, page 33
New survey suggests job tension is fault of individual, not job ..... April, page 35
Systems audits–the safe way to cut clerical costs
by Ralph W. Fairbanks ..... May, page 29
How to plan and carry out an office moving assignment
by Robert C. Montgomery ..... May, page 32
U. S. World Trade Fair exhibits products of 43 nations at New York's Coliseum ..... May, page 42
How to make your reports clear, concise and effective
by Maryland Manger ..... May, page 64
How to make organization charts effective and useful
by Eugene J. Revolon ..... May, page 74
Are methods men responsible for many of their own current troubles?
by Charles Saunders-White and David R. Bywaters ..... June, page 43

Systems Design and Methods

How a functional file can aid in forms control
by Ray Marien ..... January, page 26
How streamlining our order processing helped all our paperwork operations.
by Matthew R. Parisi ..... February, page 35
Bank reduces account posting to single operation
by Frederick Vogel ..... March, page 28
Why can't we standardize forms for intercompany communications?
by Richard Paulson ..... March, page 33
Systems planning in a cost-cutting era; what it can and must do
by Allen Y. Davis ..... Yearbook, page 24
Let's protect profit by a "second look" at paper processing costs.
by Alan C. Negus ..... Yearbook, page 27
How we developed a records program to meet current and future needs.
by Harry S. Hughes ..... April, page 31
How we upped invoice output in less time with less help
by W. E. Tully ..... May, page 37
How a change in purchase order forms simplified inventory control ..... June, page 37

Tools of the Office

by Robert Beeman

Wardrobes and lockers; storage equipment ..... January, page 38
Numbering machines, time recorders and Water Coolers ..... March, page 45 stamps, and check devices ..... February, page 48
Tools of the office series ..... Yearbook, page 59
Air conditioners; fans and air circulators ..... April, page 44
Acoustical materials; floor coverings; overhead lighting equipment; movable partitions ..... May, page 48
Mailroom equipment; addressing equipment June, page 50

office management

Semi-annual Index

January-June, 1958

Association News

AMA conference hears "progress reports" on E.D.P. installations
by Frederick Vogel ..... April, page 25
NOMA announces schedule for Chicago conference and business show ..... April, page 82
Chicago hosts NOMA conference ..... May, page 39

Automation in the Office

How to prepare an office for a computer installation ..... January, page 30
Basic steps in programming a computer for a single operation
by Ben Conway ..... February, page 28
Spread of office automation slowed by cautious business mood in 1957
by Robert M. Smith ..... Yearbook, page 10
Operations research and its role in the office management picture
by David B. Hertz ..... Yearbook, page 14
Why small companies may need automation even more than larger concerns.
by Robert M. Smith ..... June, page 31

Layout and Equipment

1957 "Office of the Year" Awards announced January, page 25
Publishing firm adds a modern touch to its 50-year-old address ..... January, page 48
Don't overlook older office buildings when planning new office space ..... January, page 56
Decor expresses organization personality in savings institution.
by Frederick Vogel ..... February, page 32
American Colortype places emphasis on "big office" advantages
by Frederick Vogel ..... March, page 36
"Office of the Year" awards, 1957
by Frederick Vogel ..... Yearbook, page 35
Advertising agency promotes itself, its clients in bright new offices ..... April, page 36
Pfizer International opens new, modern offices ..... May, page 34
Dramatic C. I. T. building adds impetus to office boom in New York
by Frederick Vogel ..... June, page 34

Personnel

How to schedule work loads for a "floating force"
by Ralph Fairbanks and Jerome Hoffman ..... February, page 23
Our employees helped us halve our forms load
by John P. Boxshus ..... February, page 30
What are the new trends in insurance, health protection for office workers?
by Robert M. Smith ..... March, page 25
How to set up effective and equitable promotion policies
by Robley D. Stevens ..... March, page 40
End to personnel shortage sighted even if economy enters another boom
by Edith Conner ..... Yearbook, page 18
Management development: are we stressing programs over people?
by Jack B. Collins ..... Yearbook, page 20
How office managers rate job performance: a measurement guide.
by Robley D. Stevens ..... May, page 40
Clerical personnel pool swelled by June high school graduates ..... June, page 38
Is your indoctrination of new personnel as scientific as their selection?
by Raymond Dreyfack ..... June, page 41

Special Features

What's ahead for the office in 1958–review and forecast.
by Robert M. Smith ..... January, page 19
Suburban bank proves mechanization can pay in small office
by Frederick Vogel ..... January, page 22
Employing the "art of command" in company communications.
by Stanley H. Mansbridge ..... January, page 28
Long range planning is only effective when it, too, is planned
by Ernest W. Fair ..... January, page 43
Does your organization really welcome new ideas?
by G. R. Bell ..... February, page 68
The how, when and where of effective procedure audits
by Thomas G. Horti ..... March, page 31
How one small office made its work measurement program work ..... March, page 60
Let's not overlook the physical aspects of Communications techniques
by H. V. Kellam ..... April, page 28
Why clearly defined authority levels are basic to good organization structure.
by Stanley H. Mansbridge ..... April, page 33
New survey suggests job tension is fault of individual, not job ..... April, page 35
Systems audits–the safe way to cut clerical costs
by Ralph W. Fairbanks ..... May, page 29
How to plan and carry out an office moving assignment
by Robert C. Montgomery ..... May, page 32
U. S. World Trade Fair exhibits products of 43 nations at New York's Coliseum ..... May, page 42
How to make your reports clear, concise and effective
by Maryland Manger ..... May, page 64
How to make organization charts effective and useful
by Eugene J. Revolon ..... May, page 74
Are methods men responsible for many of their own current troubles?
by Charles Saunders-White and David R. Bywaters ..... June, page 43

Systems Design and Methods

How a functional file can aid in forms control
by Ray Marien ..... January, page 26
How streamlining our order processing helped all our paperwork operations.
by Matthew R. Parisi ..... February, page 35
Bank reduces account posting to single operation
by Frederick Vogel ..... March, page 28
Why can't we standardize forms for intercompany communications?
by Richard Paulson ..... March, page 33
Systems planning in a cost-cutting era; what it can and must do
by Allen Y. Davis ..... Yearbook, page 24
Let's protect profit by a "second look" at paper processing costs.
by Alan C. Negus ..... Yearbook, page 27
How we developed a records program to meet current and future needs.
by Harry S. Hughes ..... April, page 31
How we upped invoice output in less time with less help
by W. E. Tully ..... May, page 37
How a change in purchase order forms simplified inventory control ..... June, page 37

Tools of the Office

by Robert Beeman

Wardrobes and lockers; storage equipment ..... January, page 38
Numbering machines, time recorders and Water Coolers ..... March, page 45
stamps, and check devices ..... February, page 48
Tools of the office series ..... Yearbook, page 59
Air conditioners; fans and air circulators ..... April, page 44
Acoustical materials; floor coverings; overhead lighting equipment; movable partitions ..... May, page 48
Mailroom equipment; addressing equipment June, page 50